TOACON2025
BORACAY, PHILIPPINES

Getting to Know Boracay

Recognised as the “World’s Leading Luxury Island Destination” by the World Travel Awards in 2024, Boracay is one of the Philippines’ premiere beach destinations. Known for its powdery white sand, crystal clear waters, vibrant night life, and breathtaking sunsets, this small island 315 kilometers south of Manila attracts visitors from all over the world.

How to Get to Shangri-La Boracay

While there are no direct flights to Boracay from anywhere in Australia, New Zealand, or the US, Manila offers the perfect jump off point to the island for international travelers.

With frequent flights from the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (MNL) to Godofredo P. Ramos Airport (MPH) in Caticlan, getting to Boracay is a breeze. From the Caticlan airport, a Shangri-la van will take you to the Caticlan Jetty Port where you will get a complimentary speedboat transfer directly to Shangri-La Boracay.

TOA Tips, Trivias, & FAQs

How to get around Boracay?

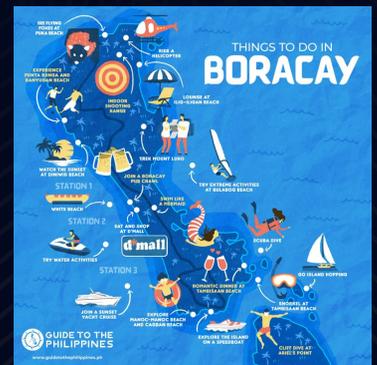

The most common mode of public transport in Boracay is e-trike. Regular fares could range from Php 15 – Php 40, while chartered trips could range from Php 100-400 depending on the distance.

Plastic straws are banned across the island as part of a broader move to eliminate single-use plastic.

Boracay's world-famous White Beach stretches 4-kilometres and is divided into Stations 1, 2, and 3. Located about 18 kilometres south of Shangri-la Boracay, White Beach is the busiest, most lively part of the island.

While more and more shops are starting to accept cards, cash remains the most common payment method across the island.
