What to Bring and Prepare

Your passport, evidence of sufficient funds to support your stay in PH, hotel accommodation bookings, and return tickets.

If you have a passport issued by Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, or the United States, you can enter the Philippines without a visa and stay for up to 30 days, provided:

- You are traveling to the Philippines for business or tourism.
- You have valid return or outbound tickets to your country of origin or next destination.
- Your passport is valid for at least 6 months after your planned stay in the country.

You can find the latest guidelines for temporary visitors to the Philippines here.

Within 72 hours before your scheduled arrival in the Philippines, please register through the eTravel portal: <https://etravel.gov.ph>.

This replaced the paper-based arrival and departure cards.

Credit card and cash. Ensure you have enough local currency (₱ - Philippine Peso) to cover your airport transfer and daily transportation from the hotel to the office and vice versa.

Prepare your itinerary ahead of time. Please communicate your plans to the Client Relationship Manager (CRM) weeks prior to your visit.

Prescriptions or over-the-counter medication, if needed.

Wall socket adapters for your gadgets as the common voltage in the Philippines is 220 volts.

Travel insurance is optional, but highly encouraged.

Getting around Manila: Transportation tips

Grab Car or Grab Taxi

The preferred mode of transport for booking a ride from NAIA airport to your hotel, visiting our TOA Global Manila office, or to go anywhere in Metro Manila.

Key in your pickup point and destination to get estimated fares.

Download Grab App

Cash and credit cards are accepted as payment options.

Coupon Taxi

Parked across from the Arrival Hall exit, these blue-marked white cabs offer fixed rates depending on your destination.

Be sure to keep the coupon which will be handed to you until you reach your destination.

Regular Metered Taxi

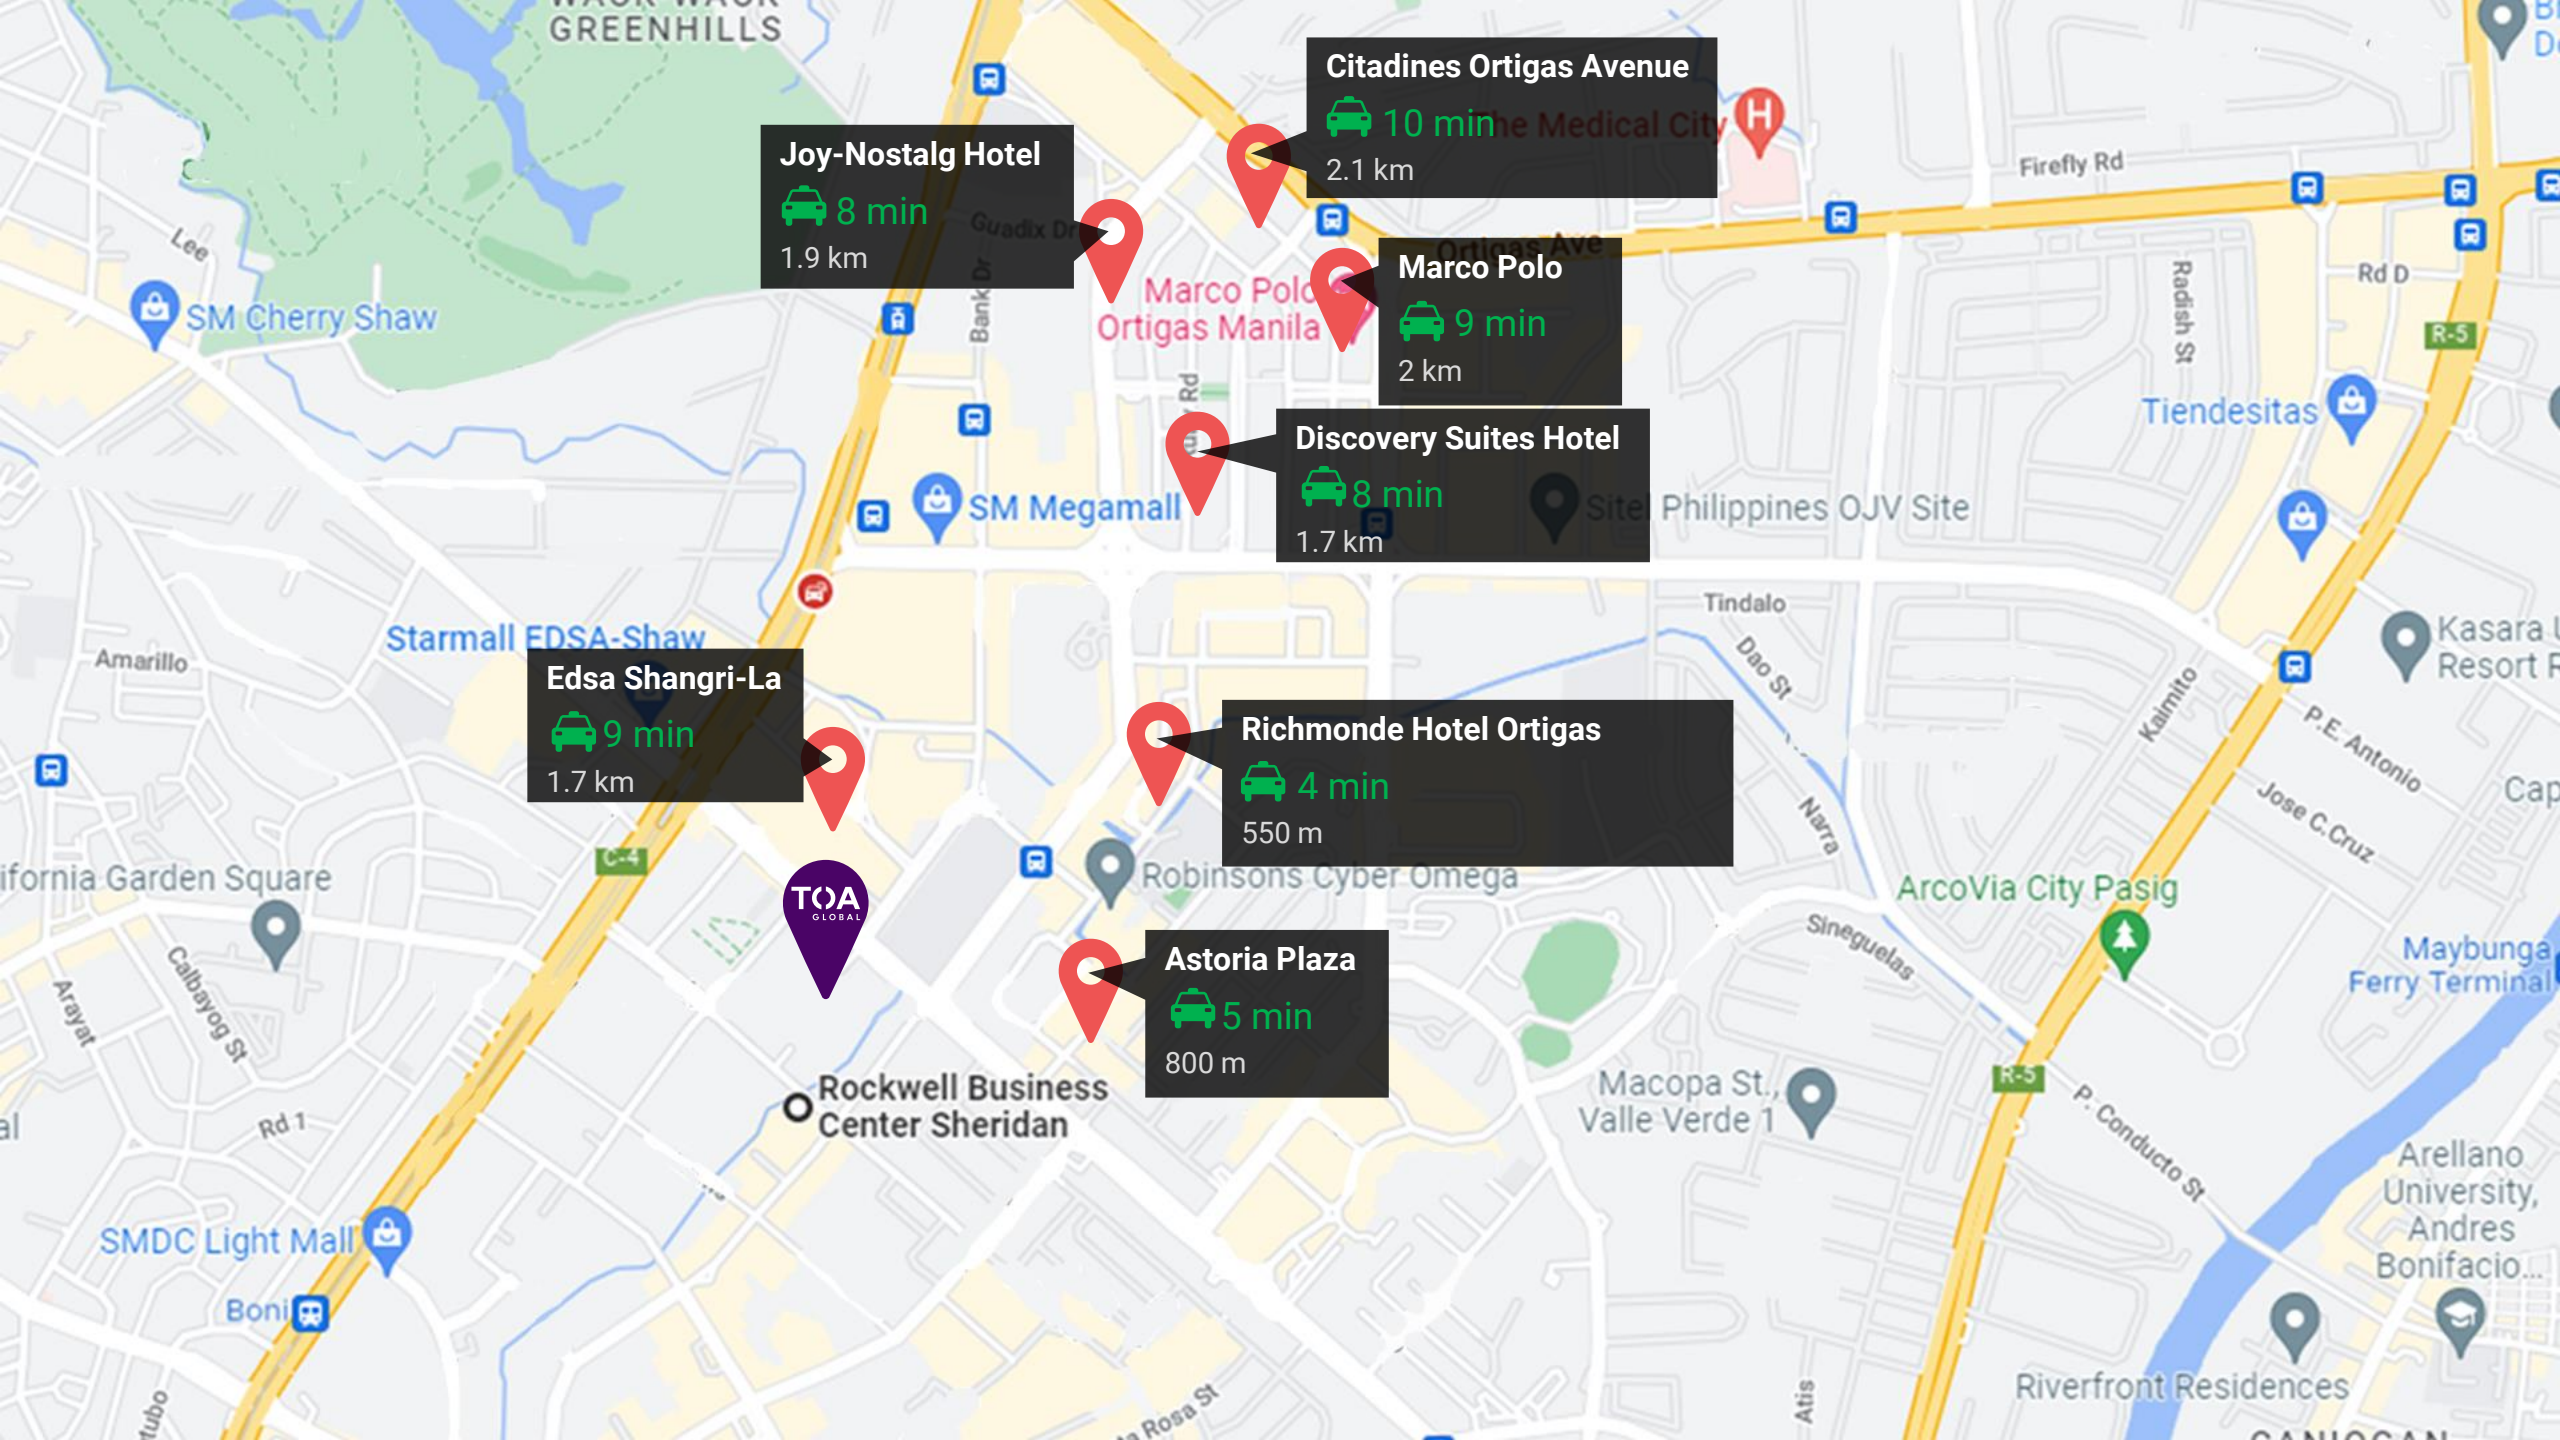

Use this option only if you know your way to your destination (not all regular taxi drivers use Waze).

Base rate is ₱40.00 with an additional charge of ₱13.50 for every kilometre, and ₱2.00 for every two minutes waiting or standing in traffic.

Some drivers will also ask for "meter plus ₱50 or ₱100" but you can either accept this or wait for another vehicle.

HAVE FUN

Sarsa's Kitchen + Bar

A favourite Filipino comfort food eating hub that serves Filipino and Negrense cuisine.

Must-try: Batchoy special (served with egg, sliced bone marrow, bacon-cut liempo, and fresh egg miki noodles), tortang talong (eggplant omelette) with crispy sardines and kesong puti (white cheese), sizzling kansì (beef shank with bone marrow).

For adventurous eaters: Isaw (chicken intestine).

Manam Café

Specialises in serving Filipino fare with a creative twist.

Must-try: Crispy pancit palabok (crispy fried noodles topped with hard-boiled egg slices and tender shrimp), sinigang na beef short rib (sour beef soup) with slices of watermelon, crispy pata (deep-fried pig trotters) with garlic chili bits.

For adventurous eaters: Crispy sisig (made of chopped pig's cheeks, ears, liver, and onions), gising-gising (creamy-spicy green bean dish made of coconut cream and pork chunks).

Sentro 1771

One of the first restaurants to offer modern twists on Filipino staples.

Must-try: Fried suman (rice cake) and mangoes, Rated GG (blue mackerel scad fillets) fried in olive oil and garnished with toasted garlic; keso flan, (no-crust cheesecake served with a side of quezo de bola slices and salted egg).

For adventurous eaters: Sinigang na corned beef (tender, chunky, home-made corned beef and boneless beef shanks in tamarind broth with vegetables).

Mesa

The first and only-grill restaurant in Metro Manila that provides on-the-spot grilling right at your table. It also specialises in Filipino comfort food.

Must-try: Baby squid in olive oil, baked scallops with garlic butter, grilled prawns with lemon butter, and drunken ostrich with cheese.

For adventurous eaters: Laing (taro leaves with shrimp paste, pork, and coconut cream).

Jollibee

This Filipino-owned fast-food giant was once dubbed by the late Anthony Bourdain as “the wackiest, jolliest place on earth.”

Must-try: Jolly spaghetti (the pasta is boiled well past al dente, and the tomato sauce is sweet, cooked with sliced hot dogs and topped with melted cheddar cheese), Chickenjoy (fried chicken paired with Jollibee's signature gravy).

Wildflour Café + Bakery

This restaurant is a favourite among Filipino diners for its world-class brunch and bistro dishes, desserts, and pastries – all cooked and baked fresh in-house.

Must-try: Lasagna bolognese, chicken avocado sandwich, double cheeseburger, squid ink pasta, and young coconut.

Mamou

Mamou serves quality, flavourful dishes. They have a wide variety of offerings to choose from, including their popular home-style kitchen dishes.

Must-try: Try their famous steak and pasta.

Cibo

A modern Italian caffè-paninoteca, offering a wide range of authentic Italian dishes—antipasti, zuppe, insalate, paste, pizze, secondi piatti, dolci and bevande.

Must-try: Spaghettoni Alla Roma with sardines, fennel, olive oil, chili peppers and red pesto.

Mary Grace

Home of the handmade ensaymadas, cheese rolls and a host of delicious bakes for delivery or pickup.

Must-try: Mary Grace cheese rolls are an institutions – soft, billowy rolls with a velvety cheese centre.

Drink

Mistral Rooftop Bar

Enjoy cocktails that perfectly match the Manila climate as well as a wide selection of wines, champagnes, and spirits. It's located on the 10th floor of Raffles Makati which means it also offers an amazing view of the Makati City skyline.

Dr Wine Rooftop

Best for chilling out with a glass of wine while watching the sun set over the Makati cityscape.

The Curator

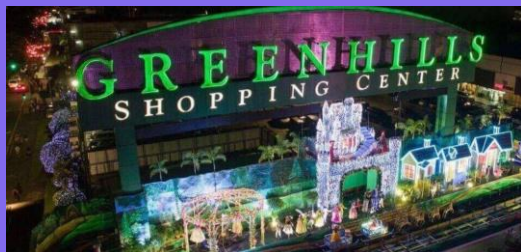

Best known for specialty coffee and hand-crafted cocktails.

Oto

Awarded one of the best bars in Asia for five years in a row and designed to give guests the ultimate listening experience too.

Greenhills Shopping Center

An indoor-outdoor haven with more than 2,000 stores that sell anything from clothes and electronics to accessories (especially pearls that define the Philippines as the Pearl of the Orient).

Pro tip: The key to shopping here is to haggle and compare prices in surrounding stalls.

Greenbelt

One of the most upscale malls in the country for indoor shopping and dining with landscaped gardens.

Pro tip: Head straight to the second floor of Greenbelt 5 if you want to have a look at some of the country's top local designer brand collections.

Bonifacio High Street

It's the Philippine version of Main Street, USA, which celebrates a work and play environment. Its wide, clean roads are lined with flagship stores and restaurants.

Have fun

Intramuros

Explore this ancient walled city either via kalesa (horse-drawn carriages) or on sustainable bamboo bikes (e.g., Bambike Ecotours).

Fun fact: It's home to Manila Cathedral, a Romanesque facade with the biggest pipe organ in Southeast Asia.

Binondo

The world's oldest Chinatown where you can find an amalgamation of Buddhist temples, pawn shops and Chinese restaurants, with each street housing a specialty.

Malabon tricycle tour

Enjoy the culinary experience of a food tour with generational recipes. You can pick from a heritage tour, food tour or both.

Tagaytay

Approximately 60 kilometres from Manila, this place is home to Taal Volcano (the smallest active volcano in the world). It's also a crowd-favourite destination thanks to its fresh air, cool and breezy climate, and plenty of greenery.
